

Affinity Credit Union has a dedicated Business Development Manager and a team of Account Managers committed to meeting the needs of First Nations members.

Chris Sicotte, Business Development Manager, leads the team and focuses on the delivery of lending and investment services to First Nations Bands and business entities across Saskatchewan. Throughout his career in the financial services sector, he has developed strong relationships with First Nations and Métis communities both in Saskatchewan and across Canada.