

About AFOA SK

The Aboriginal Financial Officers Association of Saskatchewan is the provincial chapter of AFOA Canada, and is the centre for excellence and innovation in Aboriginal finance and management.

AFOA Canada is the only organization in Canada that focuses on the capacity development and day to day needs of those Aboriginal professionals who are working in all areas of finance and management – today's leaders and those of the future.

AFOA was founded as a not-for-profit association in 1999 to help Aboriginal people better manage and govern their communities and organizations through a focus on enhancing finance and management practices and skills. AFOA's premise is that effective management is key to building social and economic prosperity and essential to successful Aboriginal governance.

AFOA Canada serves their members' professional needs so that they can help their organizations and communities maximize resources, strengthen decision-making and governance, enhance the delivery of programs and services and meet accountability requirements. AFOA Canada serves members' needs so that they can improve their skills and knowledge, grow professionally, and progress through their careers.

AFOA membership spans the country from the Pacific to the Atlantic to the Arctic. AFOA members are leaders in their communities, organizations, and companies. What binds them is their commitment to financial and management excellence. They are the people who get things done. You can be among them.
