

Programs and Services Compendium

Proposal Writing Workshop

October 25, 2017

John McArthur and Marsha Hordos

What is the Compendium?

- The compendium is a database of programs and services available to First Nation communities to support various programming and address challenges.

What is the Compendium?

- Health and Wellness
- Arts, Culture and Social
- Business and Economic Development
- Education
- Employment and Training
- Governance
- Infrastructure
- Lands and Resources
- Justice

What is in the Compendium?

- Grant and Contribution Agreement opportunities from all levels of government, business and philanthropic organizations
- Reports and Guides
- Success Stories
- Sample documents and Templates
- Web resources

How to Use the Compendium?

- Determine which category best fits the programs or services you are looking for
- Unselect all in the Program Category Filter and reselect the desired category or categories
- Review results and determine which are appropriate for your needs
- Results can be copied into a separate spreadsheet for additional manipulation

Let's Try it!

Future Development of the Compendium

- Moving it Online (www.skfn.ca)
- Improving Search Functions
- Quarterly Updates

More Information

- John McArthur, Community Navigator
  - john.mcarthur.prnfn@gmail.com
  - 306-526-5333
- Marsha Hordos, Community Development Officer
  - Marsha.Hordos@aandc-aadnc.gc.ca
  - 306-501-4424